

CREEKSHOW CALLOUT:

Contributions needed for upcoming exhibition about Deptford Creek.

Creekshow is a multimedia exhibition + performances that will take place in April at APT Gallery. It will explore memories of Deptford Creek, and consider our hopes for its future (and that of Deptford).

AND WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Whether you and Deptford Creek go way back, or whether you've caught a whiff of the creek on a night out, we want to hear from you! Your contributions will help the development of the exhibition and may be included in the exhibition itself.

HOW TO CONTRIBUTE

1. FOUND OBJECTS

Do you have an object that reminds you of Deptford Creek?

The object doesn't need to be fished out of the creek itself (although it can be), but should make you think of the creek in some way.

2. ORAL TESTIMONIES

Do you have a memory or story of Deptford Creek?

This could be an in person meeting between you and the creek, it could be a story that you heard, or knowledge that you would like to share.

It could be from the 1800s, or it could be from last week.

There are no rules! If you reflect on Deptford Creek, what comes to mind?

To submit, please scan the QR code.
